Edward J. Kaindl
Recorder of Deeds.
ills AGREEMENT entered into this 30th day of November, 1923, by and between the undersigned owners of land on the one on the other side of Evans, Langley, Chicago, St. Lawrence, Wacker, Verona and South James avenues between 50th and 63rd streets and on 50th, 51st and 52nd streets between South Park and Cottage Grove avenues, in the City of Chicago, witnesseth, that

Whereas, the following named persons own the respective parcels of land in said area set immediately under their names, having the frontage hereinafter set forth:
IN CONSIDERATION of the premises and of the usual covenants and agreements made, and of the sum of Five Dollars ($5.00), in hand paid to each of the parties hereto by each of the other parties hereto, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, each party as owner of the parcel of land above described immediately consecutive of the same, does hereby covenant and agree with each and every other of the parties hereto, that he said parcel of land is free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, and that he will make no sale, conveyance, lease, or agreement and give no license or permission in violation of such restrictions or provisions, which are as follows:

1. The restriction that no part of said premises shall in any manner be used or occupied directly or indirectly by any negro or negroes, provided that this restriction shall not prevent the occupation, during the period of their employment, of janitors' or chauffeurs' quarters in the basement or in a 'tenement or garage in the rear, or of servants' quarters by negro janitors, chauffeurs or house-servants, respectively, normally employed as such for service in and about the premises by the rightful owner or occupant of said premises.

2. The restriction that no part of said premises shall be sold, given, conveyed or leased to any negro or negroes, and no permission or license to use or occupy any part thereof shall be given to any negro except house servants or janitors or chauffeurs employed thereon as aforesaid.

The covenants, restrictions, and agreements herein contained shall be considered as appurtenant to and running with the land, and shall be binding upon and for the benefit of each party hereto and may be enforced by any of the parties hereto by any permissible legal or equitable proceedings, including proceedings to enjoin violation and for specific performance; provided, however, that in any action brought to set aside any deed made in violation of any of the provisions of this agreement, it shall be a good defense thereto that prior to the institution of such suit, the title to the premises then in question had become vested in, and was then owned by, a corporation or a white person, for value, and provided, further, that the lien of a mortgage or trust deed in the nature of a mortgage shall be impaired or invalidated by reason of the breach of any of the provisions of this agreement, whether any such breach shall have occurred prior or subsequent to the recording of any such mortgage or trust deed, and provided further that nothing contained herein shall in any manner impair the right of any person or persons interested in the premises at any time and against all persons the restrictions in this agreement contained, prohibiting the sale of all or any part of said premises by a negro or negroes.

This agreement and the restrictions herein contained shall be of no force or effect unless executed in writing, or a substantially similar agreement, shall be signed by the owners above enumerated or at the time of delivery of Deeds of Cook County, Illinois, executed on or before December 31, 1928. Provided, however, that the execution of any of said parcels or of any part thereof shall be under disability, as, for example, if any other reason shall not have the power to execute this agreement, as for example, without such power, by testamentary trustees or other fiduciaries, the execution of this agreement, though the owners thereof had power to sign, and had signed the agreements, as to the power whether this agreement becomes effective or not under the provisions of this restriction.

It is understood that for convenience a number of counterpart or concurrent instruments are hereafter referred to, and that the execution of any one of such instruments shall have the same effect as the instrument by the same person would have, and it is understood that parties to any such agreement, not only those persons who shall sign this instrument but all the persons who shall sign one or more of said instruments, and that this instrument and all of said instruments shall constitute one agreement. It being contemplated that changes in owners and the date which this instrument bears and the date when it shall become effective or if any be some misconception of ownership herein contained, it is further understood that the person or persons who shall be the owner of any of said parcels of land at the time shall have the same effect as though such person had been the owner thereof on the date hereof, the same interest in whether the recital of ownership herein contained is made to conform to the facts.
The undersigned spouses of owners of land herein described join herein for the purpose of signifying their assent hereto and of subjecting their rights of dower, if any, to the restrictions and provisions hereinafter mentioned.

This is of the essence of this contract and all the terms, conditions and provisions hereof.

The covenants, restrictions and agreements herein contained shall be binding on, and for the benefit of, and may be enforced by and against each party hereto, his successors and assigns, and the heirs, executors, administrators and successors of them respectively.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

This agreement and the restrictions hereinafter expressed may be abrogated at any time on or after January 1, 1948, by the written agreement of the owners of seventy-five per centum of the frontage owned by the parties who shall so agree, as herein set forth, such abrogation to be effective from and after the date of delivery and recording of such written agreement. Provided, however, that if the owner of any of said parcels or any part thereof shall be under disability, as, for example, that of minority, or for any other reason shall not have the power to execute such abrogation agreement, as, for example, when the title is held, without such power, by testamentary trustees or other fiduciaries, the frontage so owned shall be treated as though the owners thereof had power to sign, and had signed, such abrogation agreement, for the purpose of determining whether such abrogation agreement becomes effective or not under the provisions of this paragraph.

The invalidity of any restriction hereby imposed, or of any provision hereof, or of any part of any such restriction or provision shall not impair or affect in any manner the validity, enforceability or effect of the rest of this agreement.

Pronouns herein employed in the masculine gender shall be construed to include the feminine and neuter genders, and the word "party" or "persons" to include natural and artificial parties or persons.

The term "nigger" as used herein shall include every person having one-eighth part or more of negro blood, or having any appreciable admixture of negro blood, and every person who is commonly known as a colored person.

In any case where there is a recorded lease of any parcel of the property described herein for a term ending more than five years after any given date the owner of the reversion and the owner of the leasehold estate together shall be deemed to be the owners of such parcel on such given date within the meaning of this contract, and whenever the signature of the owner of such parcel shall be required on such given date under the provisions hereof, the signatures of both shall be required, provided that whatever interest any signer of this instrument owns in any of said property shall be bound by the provisions hereof. Lessees under unrecorded leases on any given date and under leases for terms ending less than five years after such given date shall not be regarded as owners within the meaning of this contract.

The undersigned spouses of owners of land herein described join herein for the purpose of signifying their assent hereto and of subjecting their rights of dower, if any, to the restrictions and provisions imposed hereby.

Time is of the essence of this contract and all the terms, conditions and provisions hereof.

The covenants, restrictions and agreements herein contained shall be binding on, and for the benefit of, the parties hereto, and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, and successors.

WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and
