ROBE DRESS.

(From the celebrated establishment of Messrs. A. T. Stewart & Co., of New York.)

ROBE DRESS.

(From the celebrated establishment of Messrs. A. T. Stewart & Co., of New York.)

Dress of white percale frilled with black, and bordered with lace edging. The underskirt of percale, stamped to match the dress.

Originally of white percale, with black watered tucks, and ornamented with large pink roses, with green and brown foliage. The bodice is of orange-colored silk, with blue brocaded grey kid.